

Images from the Raco Plains Field Trip, 11 May 2006
Michigan Society of American Foresters Spring Conference

Stop 1, prescribed burns to maintain permanent opening or barrens habitat.

Stop 2, jack pine seed-tree harvest sold in 2005 (Star Timber Sale).

Stop 3, jack pine budworm unit sold in 2005, a Kirtland warbler objective.

Stop 3, jack pine budworm unit sold in 2005, a Kirtland warbler objective.

Stop 4, Sharp-tailed grouse habitat and telemetry study.

Stop 6, 2005 prescribed burn of a red pine savannah.

Stop 7, suitable Kirtland warbler habitat, natural regeneration.